WORDS FROM BILL

As Christmas approaches, I eagerly scan the TV guide looking for old familiar Christmas specials, and the day and time they will run. This may seem just a bit odd for a man my age, but these stories and the messages they bring, are still very much a part of who I am, and I look forward to watching them with as much excitement and anticipation as I did as a child. Rudolf the “misfit” saves the day with his shiny nose, the Grinch comes to realize that Christmas is so much more than presents and feasting, and of course, A Christmas Carol, with its many re-makes over the years, reminds us we should always work and strive for the good of all mankind.

These are my old favorites, the shows of my childhood. But every now and then, (not too often) a new one comes along that slips into my list of favorites, and one recently has. I just finished viewing, (for the second or third time☺), The Polar Express. In this story, a magical train picks up a handful of children, and takes them on magical, mystical ride to the North Pole on Christmas Eve. How the children are chosen is not real clear, but there were girls and boys, rich and poor, of all races, creeds and colors. And although it seemed they were all there to grow in some way, or gain something from the experience, the main goal was to be the child chosen to receive the first gift of Christmas (that Christmas) from Santa.

Ultimately, a young man, the star of show, was chosen to receive the first gift. Able to ask for anything he wanted, he surprised Santa, and asked for the sleigh bell he had found on the ground, that had fallen off Santa’s sleigh. Santa took the bell in his hand, and standing tall in his sleigh, holding the bell high above his head, announced in a loud, low, booming voice...THE FIRST GIFT OF CHRISTMAS! For a moment, lost in the story, I thought how wonderful it would be, to be chosen to receive the first gift of Christmas. To receive a special gift, to..... wait a minute..... I was chosen to receive a special gift, and so were you, as was all creation. The most wonderful gift ever given, the true “FIRST GIFT OF CHRISTMAS”, The Christ Child, Jesus.

For unto you is born this day in the city of David, a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. On that cold night so many years ago, a child was born, a son was given, and his name shall be Emmanuel (God is with us). A child born in a humble manger, who would bring hope, peace, love and light to the dark places of our hearts. God’s gift to creation, you, me, and all people, past, present, and future. God’s gift that we gather every Christmas to celebrate. We lift our voices in prayer, praise, and song, remember and give thanks for God’s great act of love.

But yet, not all understand, not all have received this gift. Fortunately, unlike the sleigh bell that can only be handed down to one person at a time, Gods love through Christ is in endless supply, and continues to be given to all who despair, to all who live without hope. Because the light of the Christ child you see continues to lives on in you and me. And so blessed, we are compelled to share this story, share this gift, and through faith, help others to understand that they too have been chosen to receive this special gift, the greatest gift ever given, the true “FIRST GIFT OF CHRISTMAS”,

Jesus, who is Christ the Lord.

Merry Christmas

Bill †

FROM YOUR COUNCIL PRESIDENT

First of all this month I'd like to send a big "THANK YOU" to everyone who has made the past year at Shepherd very successful and blessed in many ways. There are many of you who work behind the scenes and perform the many, varied tasks that keep the doors open and allow us to do the work that our Lord calls us to do in his name. Your time and talents are truly appreciated. Thank you to Bill Wendorf for his successful first year of service to Shepherd of the Lakes. It has been a real pleasure working with him this past year. Thank you to those of you who served on our church council this year. You have been a real blessing to me when difficult decisions have to be made. Thank you to all of our members, associate members, visitors and friends for their prayers and support as we move forward.

Please watch for a mailing in the coming weeks which will contain information regarding the proposed 2018 budget and the proposed Shepherd of the Lakes endowment fund. Both have been reviewed and approved by the council. The next step is for you to review them and then, at the annual meeting, approve them or suggest possible changes which would improve them. Your council is always available to answer questions regarding these or any other relevant topics.

I, along with my wife Betsy, would like to wish all of you a Blessed Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Doug Tarkowski

From Marilyn Walters: Just an "add on" to Evelyn Ahlborn's thank you to Jan Lundin. I also would like to thank Jan and all of her Prayer warriors . I was so blessed by all the prayers during my summer surgery and struggle with cancer this summer. In fact, the feeling of love and the Lord's strong supporting arms was so intense and wonderful that I actually knew when you heard the report that things were going well. Yes, it was an unbelievable "let down", not bad, just really noticeable. It helped me realize how powerful our (your) prayers are. Prayers really do matter and I so want to thank each and every one of you for every prayer. We continue to remember and miss each of you during this time of winter absence. Love you all so much.

From Don Dixon: Thank you so much for the prayers and cards I received for a speedy recovery. Merry Christmas to all!

Tw'as the Night Before Jesus Came

'Twas the night before Jesus came and all through the house
Not a creature was praying, not one in the house.
Their Bibles were lain on the shelf without care
In hopes that Jesus would not come there.

The children were dressing to crawl into bed,
Not once ever kneeling or bowing a head.
And Mom in her rocker with baby on her lap
Was watching the Late Show while I took a nap.

When out of the east there arose such a clatter,
I sprang from my feet to see what was the matter.
Away to the window I flew like a flash
Tore open the shutters and threw up the sash!

When what to my wondering eyes should appear
But angels proclaiming that Jesus was here
With a light like the sun sending forth a bright ray
I knew in a moment this must be THE DAY!

The light of His face made me cover my head
It was Jesus returning just like He had said.
And though I possessed worldly wisdom and wealth,
I cried when I saw Him in spite of myself.

In the Book of Life which He held in His hand
Was written the name of every saved man.
He spoke not a word as He searched for my name;
When He said, "It's not here" my head hung in shame.

The people whose names had been written with love
He gathered to take to His Father above.
With those who were ready He rose without a sound
While all of the rest were left standing around.

I feel to my knees, but it was too late;
I had waited too long and thus sealed my fate.
I stood and I cried as they rose out of sight;
Oh, if only I had been ready tonight.

In the words of this poem, the meaning is clear;
The coming of Jesus is drawing near.
There's only one life and when comes the last call
We'll find that the Bible was true after all.
