VITAL LINKS

Hello friends and supporters of Vital Links & ALWM,

It has been a very busy but fruitful time so far here in Vietnam with the 2018 team. We appreciate your prayers!

I have been posting some photos and brief updates on the ALWM Facebook page the past few days when time has been available.

I realize that many of you may not currently see them. Please visit Facebook and search for Awakening Lives to World Missions. Like our page and choose to follow us and you will receive posts as they come. You can also see the posts for the past week.

I will be working on the next ALWM special Vital Links newsletter after we return home. It will give a full report of this trip! At this moment, as we bounce along the highway entering Ho Chi Minh City after a day of ministry in the Mekong Delta, I can share a fresh realization that has dawned on me this week:

The ministry of Vital Links is much more than I realized when we received the ministry as a part of ALWM recently, and I already was excited about the work we do!

It has a wonderful staff and volunteers, strong history, solid local relationships and has more potential for growth and kingdom impact than I had recognized previously-something that has come alive for me here in Vietnam the past 9 days. Praise the Lord!

May the Lord bless you richly, and Please keep praying:). Be sure to check out our Facebook page, and watch for that newsletter later this month.

In Christ,

Bill
